Profile

Bailey Campbell is an Amesbury, MA-based painter, mother, and lover of bold pigments and soft edges. She moved to Boston following her 2015 graduation from St. Lawrence University, where she pursued a corporate career while balancing her true passion - creating. She became a full-time commission artist in June of 2020, and much of her recent work has been in watercolor, gouache, or acrylic. Her portfolio covers a variety of subjects, with an emphasis on landscapes, portraiture, and event design.
